

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Electric Fans—Burgess-Grunden Co. Fidelity Storage & Van Co.—Doug. 1514. Have Root Print Co.—Now Deacon Press. Dr. Kiniser—Brandeis Theater Bldg. Nose and Throat. Phone Douglas 1884. Notice—My residence, 4212 Florence Blvd. Price reasonable, terms easy. Pleased to show property. Inquire for me. Phone Douglas 284. Home Miller. Confined to His Home—George F. Gilmore, president of the Conservative Savings and Loan association, is confined to his home, suffering from tonsillitis. Coal Contract Let—Sunderland Bros. of Omaha have been awarded the contract for supplying coal for the federal building for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914. Jewelry Was Stolen—Obedta Kerney reports that a ladies' watch, a pair of gold cuff buttons and watch chain were taken from his room at the Merchants' hotel yesterday. Charities Need Furniture—The Associated Charities has appealed to the public for the donation of a dresser, chairs, a small rug and a mattress, which are badly needed by a poor family. Cigars Were Stolen—A. Ostergaard's saloon, 592 Cuming street, was broken into early this morning by thieves who stole 1,000 cigars and left a bunch of skeleton keys in the rear door. Listed Too Much Property—A. J. Anderson, 59 South Eleventh street, has asked the city council for relief from assessment of $9,000 for taxes. He says he accidentally listed $9,000 which he didn't own. Rosenstock Will Plead—The will of Henny Rosenstock, tobacco dealer, filed with Clerk Sundblad of the county court, leaves all his property to his wife, Mrs. Flora B. Rosenstock. The amount is not given. The State Bank of Omaha pays 4 per cent on time deposits, 3 per cent on saving accounts. The only bank in Omaha whose depositors are protected by the depositors' guarantee fund of the state of Nebraska, 17th and Harney streets. Is Special Agent Now—D. W. Her, former police captain, visited Chief Dunn, Her left the service to take a position with the Illinois Central. He is special agent for the railroad and stopped off in Omaha while returning to Chicago from Los Angeles. Held Under Mann Act—Lizzie Lane, colored, has been placed on trial in the United States district court charged by the government with violating the Mann white slave act. The Lane woman is alleged to have transported several colored girls from Omaha to Sheridan, Wyo. Held for Investigation—C. J. Arthur of Sioux City has been arrested by Detective Van Dusen and is being held pending an investigation of his having embezzled considerable sums from the Collier Publishing company while being employed as a solicitor for that concern. Gilmore Residence Sold—T. E. Stevens has bought the home of George F. Gilmore, president of the Conservative Savings and Loan association, at 1930 South Thirty-second avenue. He paid $11,500 for the property, making the purchase as an investment. Gilmore will continue residing there. Thieves Enter Grocery—The grocery of Low Schuyler, 242-24 Sherman avenue, was entered by thieves Wednesday night, who broke the glass in the front and rear doors, but succeeded in getting away with but fifty pennies from the cash register. Miss Crumpacker Sick—Miss Martha Crumpacker, teacher of arithmetic at the Omaha High School of Commerce, has been compelled to ask for leave of absence for the remainder of the year on account of illness. She has been ill for some time, but until Wednesday was able to keep up her work. Stole Raincoat and Umbrella—Thieves evidently had the intention of drowning J. A. Moran, for after stealing his silver-headed umbrella from his office in the Rice building, Tuesday, they followed their victim to the Young Men's Christian association and there stole his raincoat, which he purchased the day before. Woman Secures License—Miss Suzanne Dawson of South Omaha came to the office of the clerk of the county court and secured a license to marry Henry Pettit of Louisville. The ceremony will be performed in Omaha. Miss Dawson said Mr. Pettit was unable to arrive here in time to get the license. She gave her age as 20 and his as 26. Lots of Mud in Dayton—Dayton, O., has enough mud to keep it cleaning for five years, according to J. Truitt Maxwell of the Omaha Young Men's Christian association, who has just returned from a trip through the flooded district of the east. He says the hauling away of mud will be a long job; however, the smaller

Omaha Little Girls Who Showed Their Mammans They Know How to Cook

LEFT TO RIGHT—ELOISE MARGARET, CATHERINE GOSS, HELEN SUNDERLAND, BOB SCHAEK, GERTRUDE KOENIG, PHYLLIS HUNTER, MILLERD HUNGATE—MEMBERS OF A COOKING CLASS THAT MEETS ON SATURDAY AT THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION ROOMS TO STUDY CULINARY PROCESSES.

LECTURE By Dr. Frank Crane Subject: "The Renaissance"

At First Methodist Church, Friday Evn'g., May 23, 8 o'clock. Tickets, 50 cents

The "Union" Has Made Home Outfitting Pleasurable and Economical for THOUSANDS! It Stands Ready to Do Same for YOU—NOW—With Prices Lower Than Ever

Advertisement for a dresser, showing an illustration of a dresser and text: $12.75 For This $20.00 Colonial Solid Oak DRESSER. Terms: $1.00 Cash, $1.00 Monthly. Exactly Like Illustration—made of solid oak, and follows correctly the modern Colonial idea.

Advertisement for Union Outfitting Co. SPECIAL HOME OUTFITS: COTTAGE OUTFITS $45, THREE ROOMS $79, FOUR ROOMS $99. THE PEOPLES STORE

WINDSOR SCHOOL MEET POSTPONED

The annual athletic meet and carnival of the Windsor school, which was scheduled to be held today, has been postponed until May 29. The cool weather and damp grounds were the cause of the postponement.

VERDICT FOR HALL—ROY J. HALL

was awarded a verdict of $3,000 by a jury in Judge Day's court for injuries received while employed as a "student" brakeman by the Union Pacific. He was standing on the ladder of a moving car and was struck by a scale box September 30, 1912, at Lincoln.

SIGNAMBRO ASKS DAMAGES—ALFIO SIGNAMBRO

has brought suit against the Union Pacific railroad for injuries alleged to have been sustained when a heavy plate fell on his ankle in the Omaha yards September 26, 1911. He was employed by the road in a blacksmith shop and asks $7,500 damages.

SCHULTZ BLOWS OUT GAS—ADOLPH SCHULTZ

blow out gas in his room at 804 North Sixteenth street, blew out the gas and went to bed. The landlady smelled gas escaping from Schultze's room and notified the police. The officers forced the door and Dr. Foltz soon revived the man. He will recover.

REMOVED FROM WATCH—OTIS P. MORGANTHAU

was relieved of his watch at Twenty-fourth and Farman streets Monday. It was valued at $20. A watch bearing marks of identification furnished the police by Morgenthaler was brought by a man to the jewelry store of A. E. Tupas to be repaired.

FROSTPITS STOLE SILVERWARE—MRS. BAZZ SETTLE

admitted two gentlemen to her house who wished to look at rooms. Wednesday afternoon, and after they had left dismissed, she found they had stolen a silver watch and several dollars in change from a bureau.

REFUSES TO PROSECUTE—MRS. FRED SMITH

614 North Seventeenth street, received a deep cut on the hand while attempting to take a knife from her husband, Arthur Smith, after he had drawn the weapon upon her. She fled from the house and reported the case to the police station. Mrs. Smith refused to prefer charges against her husband.

PRISONER IS CONVICTED—CHARLES WILLIAMS

a negro, who said in his trial that an alleged confession to having robbed John Peinow of Papillon of a small sum of money, was secured at the Omaha police station by the use of severe methods, was convicted of robbery by a jury in Judge Sutton's court. It was asserted that the jury gave no consideration to his charges against the police.

HUSBAND SUES FOR DIVORCE—JOSEPH PICK

manager of the American Supply company, has cross-petitioned for a divorce from his wife, Emma Leah Pick, who filed a suit for separate maintenance, with a monthly allowance of $200, Wednesday. Mr. Pick alleges that Mrs. Pick threw hot coffee in his face, attacked him on a public boulevard, scratched, bit and threw things at him.

HUSBAND AND WIFE ARE FINED—MR. AND MRS. G. E. WINNING

who were arrested at their home, 71 North Eighteenth street, Wednesday after a quarrel, in which Mrs. Winning accused her husband of using cocaine and he charged her with attempting to poison him, were each sentenced to three months in the county jail, where they will be in from each other during the heated summer months.

NO TIP ON HIS SUCCESSOR—JUDGE KENNEDY

who resigned from the district court bench to become a member of the State Board of Control, learned that while the board will have temporary headquarters in a room belonging to the suite of the secretary of state, it will ultimately have rooms on the first floor of the state house—those now occupied by the railway commission. Judge Kennedy has learned nothing from Governor Murchhead as to whom his successor will be.

MEMORY IS TOO POOR—HURRY LYNCH

a member of the jury panel in district court, was excused from serving in a case against the street railway company, on trial in Judge Sutton's court, on the ground of incompetency. He was questioned as to his having said in a case on trial in Judge Sears' court that he was prejudiced against personal injury suits. To almost every question he answered, "I don't remember." A challenge on the ground that his memory was too poor for a juror was sustained by Judge Sutton.

BOWDIES ATTACK COUPLE—WILLIAM YOUNG

444 North Thirty-second street, was out walking with Miss Fay Lowe, 141 South Eighth street, and the couple was passing Sixth and William streets he was attacked by a gang of rowdies with clubs and their fists. The Lowe girl's glasses were knocked from her nose by one of the number and shattered on the pavement. They could give no explanation of the attack when they filed charges of assault and battery against four of the ring leaders of the crowd in court yesterday.

FATS FOLLOWS ON TRAIL—G. C. GOSLER

full of liquid enthusiasm, called at the police station last evening and stated that while spending a quiet evening at 99 North Eleventh street, Mary Peterson frisked his pockets to the tune of $18. With this information the place was raided and Mary, with the proprietress, "Jo" Shirley, and five other inmates, were taken to the station. "Joe" was fined $15 and costs for conducting a disorderly house and the inmates $10 and costs each. Gosler failed to appear against the Peterson woman. Charley Moore, partner of the late firm of Wick & Moore, paid all the fines.

RETIRED MAIL CARRIER IS CALLED TO REST.

JOHN CHRISTOFFERSEN.

DAMAGE DONE TO SCHOOL BUILDINGS BY THE TORNADO

Sixty thousand dollars has been spent by the Board of Education to repair damages done by the Easter Sunday tornado to school buildings and at least $20,000 will be added to this for ordinary repairs this year.

NEW APARTMENT WILL REPLACE RESIDENCE WRECKED BY TORNADO

Otto I. Purdy, whose home at Forty-second and Harney streets was destroyed by the tornado, is beginning the erection of a $10,000 apartment on the site. It will be a two-story brick structure and contain three apartments of six rooms each. Mr. Purdy, who moved to Twenty-fifth and Chicago streets when the storm razed his home, will move back to the place and occupy one of the apartments when finished.

MANAWA AND KRUG PARKS SCHEDULED TO OPEN SATURDAY

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

BURKE ACQUITTED OF MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

NEW ELECTION PRECINCTS TO BE ADDED TO DISTRICT

Election Commissioner Moorhead will probably add nineteen new precincts to the election districts of Omaha, and three more to those of South Omaha. There are now sixty-four in Omaha and fourteen in South Omaha. The additions are being brought about within the boundaries of each ward, and in the Third ward there will be six precincts, where there are now only five.

TO HONOR MEMORIAL DAY

Parochial Schools Will Have Big Entertainment at Auditorium.

SPECIAL STREET CAR SERVICE

Extra Accommodations Will Handle the Attending Pupils To and from the Various Meeting Places.

The parochial schools of the city have arranged for a big entertainment at the Auditorium Memorial day, May 25, when a large proportion of the 230 children will take part. There will be songs and recitations, drills and marches. In addition there will be a number of addresses, besides instrumental music.

Work on Nicholas and Locust Street Viaducts to Start

General Superintendent D'Bernard of the Missouri Pacific is in town looking after the new work on the Belt line and the progress being made looking to the construction of the Nicholas and Locust street viaducts.

HOTEL INSPECTION TO BE MADE THOROUGH

Every hotel in Omaha will be inspected, beginning immediately after July 11. Chief Deputy Commissioner Ackerman, visiting with City Fire Warden Morris, today, said the inspection would be thorough and would result in numerous additions and changes in hotel buildings to conform with the safety requirements of the state law passed last winter.

Parents Seeking Their Missing Son

Archie Wampler, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler, Plattsmouth, Neb., is being sought by his parents. He left home several weeks ago and it is presumed that he is working on a farm somewhere in the state. His parents would be grateful for any information regarding his whereabouts. He is described as being a slender youth with dark blue eyes and dark hair.

Manawa and Krug Parks Scheduled to Open Saturday

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

Burke Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

New Election Precincts to be Added to District

Election Commissioner Moorhead will probably add nineteen new precincts to the election districts of Omaha, and three more to those of South Omaha. There are now sixty-four in Omaha and fourteen in South Omaha. The additions are being brought about within the boundaries of each ward, and in the Third ward there will be six precincts, where there are now only five.

Damage Done to School Buildings by the Tornado

Sixty thousand dollars has been spent by the Board of Education to repair damages done by the Easter Sunday tornado to school buildings and at least $20,000 will be added to this for ordinary repairs this year.

New Apartment Will Replace Residence Wrecked by Tornado

Otto I. Purdy, whose home at Forty-second and Harney streets was destroyed by the tornado, is beginning the erection of a $10,000 apartment on the site. It will be a two-story brick structure and contain three apartments of six rooms each. Mr. Purdy, who moved to Twenty-fifth and Chicago streets when the storm razed his home, will move back to the place and occupy one of the apartments when finished.

Parents Seeking Their Missing Son

Archie Wampler, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler, Plattsmouth, Neb., is being sought by his parents. He left home several weeks ago and it is presumed that he is working on a farm somewhere in the state. His parents would be grateful for any information regarding his whereabouts. He is described as being a slender youth with dark blue eyes and dark hair.

Manawa and Krug Parks Scheduled to Open Saturday

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

Burke Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

New Election Precincts to be Added to District

Election Commissioner Moorhead will probably add nineteen new precincts to the election districts of Omaha, and three more to those of South Omaha. There are now sixty-four in Omaha and fourteen in South Omaha. The additions are being brought about within the boundaries of each ward, and in the Third ward there will be six precincts, where there are now only five.

Damage Done to School Buildings by the Tornado

Sixty thousand dollars has been spent by the Board of Education to repair damages done by the Easter Sunday tornado to school buildings and at least $20,000 will be added to this for ordinary repairs this year.

New Apartment Will Replace Residence Wrecked by Tornado

Otto I. Purdy, whose home at Forty-second and Harney streets was destroyed by the tornado, is beginning the erection of a $10,000 apartment on the site. It will be a two-story brick structure and contain three apartments of six rooms each. Mr. Purdy, who moved to Twenty-fifth and Chicago streets when the storm razed his home, will move back to the place and occupy one of the apartments when finished.

Parents Seeking Their Missing Son

Archie Wampler, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler, Plattsmouth, Neb., is being sought by his parents. He left home several weeks ago and it is presumed that he is working on a farm somewhere in the state. His parents would be grateful for any information regarding his whereabouts. He is described as being a slender youth with dark blue eyes and dark hair.

Manawa and Krug Parks Scheduled to Open Saturday

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

Burke Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

TO HONOR MEMORIAL DAY

Parochial Schools Will Have Big Entertainment at Auditorium.

SPECIAL STREET CAR SERVICE

Extra Accommodations Will Handle the Attending Pupils To and from the Various Meeting Places.

The parochial schools of the city have arranged for a big entertainment at the Auditorium Memorial day, May 25, when a large proportion of the 230 children will take part. There will be songs and recitations, drills and marches. In addition there will be a number of addresses, besides instrumental music.

Work on Nicholas and Locust Street Viaducts to Start

General Superintendent D'Bernard of the Missouri Pacific is in town looking after the new work on the Belt line and the progress being made looking to the construction of the Nicholas and Locust street viaducts.

HOTEL INSPECTION TO BE MADE THOROUGH

Every hotel in Omaha will be inspected, beginning immediately after July 11. Chief Deputy Commissioner Ackerman, visiting with City Fire Warden Morris, today, said the inspection would be thorough and would result in numerous additions and changes in hotel buildings to conform with the safety requirements of the state law passed last winter.

Parents Seeking Their Missing Son

Archie Wampler, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler, Plattsmouth, Neb., is being sought by his parents. He left home several weeks ago and it is presumed that he is working on a farm somewhere in the state. His parents would be grateful for any information regarding his whereabouts. He is described as being a slender youth with dark blue eyes and dark hair.

Manawa and Krug Parks Scheduled to Open Saturday

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

Burke Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

New Election Precincts to be Added to District

Election Commissioner Moorhead will probably add nineteen new precincts to the election districts of Omaha, and three more to those of South Omaha. There are now sixty-four in Omaha and fourteen in South Omaha. The additions are being brought about within the boundaries of each ward, and in the Third ward there will be six precincts, where there are now only five.

Damage Done to School Buildings by the Tornado

Sixty thousand dollars has been spent by the Board of Education to repair damages done by the Easter Sunday tornado to school buildings and at least $20,000 will be added to this for ordinary repairs this year.

New Apartment Will Replace Residence Wrecked by Tornado

Otto I. Purdy, whose home at Forty-second and Harney streets was destroyed by the tornado, is beginning the erection of a $10,000 apartment on the site. It will be a two-story brick structure and contain three apartments of six rooms each. Mr. Purdy, who moved to Twenty-fifth and Chicago streets when the storm razed his home, will move back to the place and occupy one of the apartments when finished.

Parents Seeking Their Missing Son

Archie Wampler, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler, Plattsmouth, Neb., is being sought by his parents. He left home several weeks ago and it is presumed that he is working on a farm somewhere in the state. His parents would be grateful for any information regarding his whereabouts. He is described as being a slender youth with dark blue eyes and dark hair.

Manawa and Krug Parks Scheduled to Open Saturday

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

Burke Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

New Election Precincts to be Added to District

Election Commissioner Moorhead will probably add nineteen new precincts to the election districts of Omaha, and three more to those of South Omaha. There are now sixty-four in Omaha and fourteen in South Omaha. The additions are being brought about within the boundaries of each ward, and in the Third ward there will be six precincts, where there are now only five.

Damage Done to School Buildings by the Tornado

Sixty thousand dollars has been spent by the Board of Education to repair damages done by the Easter Sunday tornado to school buildings and at least $20,000 will be added to this for ordinary repairs this year.

New Apartment Will Replace Residence Wrecked by Tornado

Otto I. Purdy, whose home at Forty-second and Harney streets was destroyed by the tornado, is beginning the erection of a $10,000 apartment on the site. It will be a two-story brick structure and contain three apartments of six rooms each. Mr. Purdy, who moved to Twenty-fifth and Chicago streets when the storm razed his home, will move back to the place and occupy one of the apartments when finished.

Parents Seeking Their Missing Son

Archie Wampler, aged 14 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wampler, Plattsmouth, Neb., is being sought by his parents. He left home several weeks ago and it is presumed that he is working on a farm somewhere in the state. His parents would be grateful for any information regarding his whereabouts. He is described as being a slender youth with dark blue eyes and dark hair.

Manawa and Krug Parks Scheduled to Open Saturday

Manawa and Krug park, with their numerous attractions, will be opened to the public Saturday if the weather permits. The grounds at both resorts are said to be in perfect condition and large crowds are anticipated.

Burke Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge

William L. Burke was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter resulting from the death of Forbes Robertson in October, 1911, by a jury in Judge Estelle's court late Wednesday.

ECZEMA WOULD ITCH AND BURN

Come Out in Watery Pimples. Would Have to Walk Floor. Could Not Put Hands in Water. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Box 7, Gowan, Minn.—"My eczema came out in watery pimples, a kind of rash, and looked like watery milk when I would scratch it. And then Oh! how it would itch and burn! My hands were so bad that I could not do anything about the house. I could not wash my face or comb my hair at times. It was on the inside on my hands and feet. My trouble began with itching of the Omaha Young Men's Christian association, who has just returned from a trip through the flooded district of the east. He says the hauling away of mud will be a long job; however, the smaller

Frost and Polarine Carbon-proof

Advertisement for Polarine motor oil, featuring an illustration of a car and text: Polarine is the motor car's best friend. It reduces friction to a minimum. Red Crown Motor Gasoline. STANDARD OIL COMPANY.

Advertisement for Union Outfitting Co. Just to call your attention to a small but important notice. Houses and rooms for rent should be advertised in The Bee now. People who intend moving this spring, are anxiously reading The Bee classified pages. Put your ads in at once.